

HDIL to launch new Slum Rehabilitation project at Santacruz

Mumbai 17, February 2010: HDIL, India's leading developer in SRA projects announces the launch of its new slum rehabilitation project at Santacruz West. This residential project is valued at approximately 2,000 crores with a saleable area of 1.2 million sq feet. The company expects to start constructing within the next 3 months.